

Library Tip: Connecting to Journals and Resources

MCW Libraries has a wealth of medical and bioscience journals, e-Books and databases. You can access them anytime, anywhere, from any device from library homepage or library guides. The process is quick and easy.

When you click on a subscription resource (database, book, or journal article) or the green Get it at MCW box, an OpenAthens login box will display.

Next, if you are employed by MCW or an MCW student, enter your MCW username and password.

*If you are an employee of Froedtert, OpenAthens credentials. If you register for

Then you are all set to view and use electronic resources!
